

When we are old or disabled, or have a serious illness, who should support us and how?

From your point of view, what would "good care and support" look like in the future?

Outcomes for people receiving care

What would you expect a good care and support system to provide for the people who need it?

How support is decided

What should be considered when deciding who can access care and support?

Payment and funding

What should be considered when deciding how care and support should be paid for?

Family, friend and community

What role should family, friends and local communities play in supporting people?

Information and influence

How should people be supported to have a say in decisions about care?